2017 Christmas Eve at Baba's

Our tradition of going to Baba's on Christmas Eve continued in 2017. We had great Ukrainian food with presents under the tree and of course kutya, a wheat, raisin, walnut and honey dish.

Holidays are a great time to get out and see friends who are back in town or just go out and about for the festivities. For New Year's Eve we met up with our Toronto friends Vera and Brett and celebrated at Big Ditch Brewing where we could go outside and see the ball drop from the Electric Tower along with 10,000 people. We stayed overnight at the recently opened Reikart House Boutique Hotel. When the Buffalo Bills game was flexed to 4pm on NYE, Mary said "see if we can get a table at the 716 Sports Bar downtown in front of the 38' screen". At halftime the Bills staff with Buffalo News team walked around the restaurant with two Super Bowl tickets. They ended at our table and handed them to Tom. We didn't even know that booking a table made us eligible! What a New Year's Eve!

Super Bowl, Eagles beat the Patriots!

We bought a new Honda Clarity Plug-In Hybrid! It goes 50 miles on battery and gets 42 mpg on gas, it's a great riding car, we love it.

Erika and Nick joined us on the Allure for a Western Caribbean cruise. It had great shows like Mama Mia, an ice skating rink, 17 meter diving exhibitions and so much more. On Super Bowl Sunday morning we arrived back in Ft Lauderdale. We caught a direct flight from Miami to Minneapolis and arrived in our stadium seats at 5:15 for the 5:30 kickoff. All plans worked without a hitch! We went from 78 degrees to -5 degrees and experienced, a once in a lifetime Super Bowl game.

It's been a busy year and "a picture is worth a thousand words". Here are some 2018 picture memories.

Metropolitan in the city. We sold our house. As of July 1st, we are living and loving it in Center City. We are in a two bedroom corner apartment on the 20th floor that overlooks the Southwest area of Rochester with views of the Wedge, Mount Hope, Bristol Hills, Genesee River, Times Square Building plus more! A huge shout out to all who helped in our move especially Erin Meyers, Craig Knight, and Judy & Ken Livingston. We are enjoying being so close to all the activities. Rochester Holiday Village, Christ Church Organ concerts, RoCo, Blue Cross Arena, MAG, Geva, GEM, Downstairs Cabaret, Hochstein, Eastman School Events and so much more. Boring people are bored in Rochester.

Christine is doing great and continues to be involved in church and organizations. Mary continues volunteering and Tom is squeezing in work in between enjoying city life with Mary.

Merry Christmas! Happy 2019!
